

America Lights up in Yellow

to commemorate International Holocaust Remembrance Day

New York

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
NEW JERSEY

Governor Phil Murphy will be issuing an official statement recognizing International Holocaust Remembrance Day.

Thank you for your efforts to Light Up New Jersey Yellow:
Brianna Daugherty, New Jersey Commission on Holocaust Education,
Avi Posnik, Stand With US, and Roy Tanzman, Esq.

Niagara Falls

NYC City Hall

NYC - One World Trade Center

NYC Grand Central Terminal

Mario Cuomo Bridge

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
CHICAGO

BOMA approved lighting up association buildings on International Holocaust Remembrance Day
Chicago City Council is taking up a resolution to recognize International Holocaust Remembrance Day

Thank you for your efforts to light up Chicago Yellow:
Dan Thalheimer, President of 3G Chicago and representing the Illinois Holocaust Museum

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
PENNSYLVANIA

The First Lady and Governor Josh Shapiro will be lighting up the State Capitol.
Suburbs of America will also be lit up yellow.
Efforts are ongoing working with Representative Kristin Marshall to reach out to the entire State Legislature to participate in future years.

Thank you for your efforts to light up Pennsylvania Yellow:
Stacy Setzer, President 3G Philly, Our State coordinator
Meghan Abbott, Fran Dooly & Anthony Laker representing the Governor & First Lady

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
ARKANSAS

We are looking forward to working with
Rabbi Block, Rabbi Biller, Rabbi
Ciment and Jana Cohen from the Jewish Federation of Arkansas to expand our lighting program in their state next year.

Thank you for your efforts to light up Arkansas Yellow:
Marty Sullivan, Director
Administrative Office of the Courts Annabelle Tuck, first woman elected to justice of the Arkansas Supreme Court and President of Congregation
B'nai Israel in Little Rock

Virginia

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
CONNECTICUT

Landmark buildings in Connecticut being lit up include Trumbull Tower,
JFK Center for Jewish Life at Yale, B'nai B'rith Tower, New Haven City
Hall, B'nai B'rith Jewish Museum, Memorial Library, Temple Shalom Congregation, 200 Church Street, Union Trust Building, Tower on West Lane.

Albert Einstein of Museum, Printing, Signage and Marketing Services arranged for billboards to be lit up yellow. The campaign includes the Connecticut state emblem in yellow.

Thank you for your efforts to light up Connecticut Yellow:
Sharon Lewis, Jewish Federation Association of Connecticut
Doris Zilinski, Executive Board Member of Silver Center for Jewish Life at Yale and President of Greater New Haven Holocaust Memorial

Richmond City Hall

Lighting Up America
International Holocaust Remembrance Day
OKLAHOMA

Next year the Tulsa Jewish Federation
will participate in lighting up Tulsa yellow

Thank you for your efforts to light up Oklahoma Yellow:
Rachel Johnson, Executive Director, Jewish Federation of Oklahoma City
US Senator James Lankford and his staff:
Estela Hernandez, Derek Osborn & Mona Taylor

To Participate in our lighting program across America go to: www.v4th.org

The Empire State Building is shown at night, illuminated with bright yellow lights. The building's iconic Art Deco architecture is visible, with the spire reaching towards the top of the frame. The lower part of the building is in shadow, with some windows lit up.

America Lights up in Yellow

to commemorate International
Holocaust
Remembrance
Day

January 27, 2024

*The Empire State Building in New York City
Photo: Henry levy*