

Photonews from Israel

A couple stands during their wedding ceremony held in an underground parking lot used as a protected space amid the ongoing war between Israel and Iran and the security situation in Israel, March 3, 2026. Photo by Chaim Goldberg/Flash90

Patients and medical staff are seen in an underground parking area converted into a treatment ward at Ichilov Hospital in Tel Aviv, after many patients were relocated following the outbreak of war and missile fire from Iran toward Israel, February 28, 2026. Photo by Avshalom Sassoni/Flash90

Magen David Adom staff members work at the emergency dispatch center in Ramla, central Israel, March 6, 2026. Photo by Flash90

The Western Wall in Jerusalem is seen closed to visitors amid the war with Iran and ongoing missile fire toward Israel, March 1, 2026. Photo by Yonatan Sindel/Flash90

Costumes for sale ahead of the Purim holiday in Tel Aviv, February 26, 2026. Photo by Miriam Alster/Flash90

People read the Scroll of Esther during Purim in Tzfat, amidst the war with Iran and ongoing missile fire toward Israel, March 3, 2026. Photo by David Cohen/Flash90